

DRESS CODE

The following items are inappropriate in any section of the Clubhouse (locker rooms excluded), regardless of gender.

- See-through fabric without proper lining
- Bare midriffs
- Torn, sloppy, or un-tailored clothing and footwear
- Bare feet
- Gym attire
- Tank tops, tube tops, halter tops, or midriff tops
- Collarless t-shirts
- Swimsuits or swim attire
- Cut-offs
- Excessively large or inappropriate logos on clothing
- Micro-mini skirts (with exception of appropriate tennis skirts used as a crossover for golf)

DINING AREAS

- Dress Code and Etiquette – General Policy – The Dress Code Policy for the main clubhouse is “Country Club Casual” as described below. The policy applies to all adults and children, including both members and Guests. Members are responsible for the attire and deportment of their children and guests.
- Bogey’s and San Juan Room:
 - Ladies: blouses, skirts, slacks, or dresses.
 - Men: long pants, and collared shirts.
- Men’s Grill, Ladies Lounge, Locker Room patio, Birdies:
Acceptable apparel as outlined in the Golf and Racquet Sports areas is permitted.
- Exceptions to the Dress Code Policy may be made for special or private events as determined and announced by club management.
- Enforcement of the Dress Code Policy: Please be advised that all matters pertaining to the Clubhouses, Pool, and Racquet Sports areas are under the authority of the House Committee. The House Committee shall enforce the foregoing rules, and the House Committee entrusts the Club Staff with the same enforcement authority, in the Staff’s capacity as agents of the House Committee.

Members must understand the foregoing rules are neither all-inclusive nor dispositive, due to the subjective nature of fashion and personal tastes. The House Committee reserves the right to judge Members’ dress code decisions on a case by case basis. Further, the House Committee insist that Members respect any dress code decisions Club Staff render, and Members are reminded to direct any questions to the Manager on Duty.

Finally, we ask that our Members assume the responsibility to inform their Guests as to the contents of the Dress Code so that it does not fall solely upon the Staff to do so once the guests arrive at San Juan Country Club.

RACQUET SPORTS

- Players must wear court shoes. Other styles of shoes are not permitted.
- Attire for men and ladies: t-shirts, tennis shorts, and athletic wear is appropriate.

GOLF COURSE & PRACTICE AREAS

The Dress Code standards are in place to ensure the level of enjoyment you receive while visiting the Club. They are important to us and have been established to compliment your overall experience at the Club. It is a member's responsibility to inform their guest of these standards prior to their visit to the Club. Our Staff is here to answer any questions you have about the dress code, and they have been directed to gently remind those who accidentally forget or are uninformed of the standards. Management reserves the right to define "appropriate" attire. We hope that the following guidelines will assist you in making your time spent at the Club as comfortable and pleasurable as possible.

- All members, family members, and guests shall always be neat and wear appropriate attire.
- Men: a mock, Henley, or collared shirt is acceptable. Shorts, if worn, will be traditional golf shorts.
- Ladies: attire will conform with current fashion and LPGA Tour standards. Skirts, skorts, shorts, leggings, golf dresses or slacks. Collared or open neck shirts of a polo style. Sleeveless shirts, as designed for golf must have a collar, crew neck, or high neck.
- All golfers: Blue jeans or denim is allowed. Denim that is frayed, torn, or bleached is not permitted.
- Unacceptable apparel for all golfers: work-out apparel, tank tops, tank tops with spaghetti straps, halter tops, crop tops, cut-off shorts, swimwear, t-shirts, overalls, torn or ripped denim, clothing with large brand names, images, slogan, or logos.
- Children 11 and under are exempt from the dress code. Parents are responsible for ensuring that all children 11 and under are appropriately and neatly dressed while on the premises.